Dear

STAT

I have received your letter of resignation from the Science and Technology Advisory Panel and accept it with regret.

I want to thank you for your long and faithful service with the Panel. The cogent observations and views you provided over the years have helped to make STAP an effective group, and have contributed greatly to the high caliber of the advice it has given me. Your departure leaves me with the difficult task of finding a replacement who will meet the high standards you set.

Once more, thank you for serving me and the Community so well. I know that your STAP colleagues join me in wishing you the best, and I hope that we may find occasion to work together again.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
